

Early Release Application Compassionate Grounds

Note: Only Australian or New Zealand citizens or permanent residents of Australia are permitted to claim for the early release of preserved superannuation benefits on compassionate grounds.

This form can be used to arrange a payment from your account after the ATO has approved the early release of your benefit on specified compassionate grounds.

The ATO is responsible for assessing all requests for early release of benefits on specified compassionate grounds. The Fund is responsible for the payment of the benefit from the Fund. If you have not yet applied to the ATO for assessment, you must do so before completing this form. You can apply online at www.ato.gov.au or call the ATO on 13 10 20 to request an application form.

Generally, you can apply for the early release of superannuation benefits on specified compassionate grounds if you need:

- treatment and transport for you or a dependant concerning life threatening illness or injury, acute or chronic pain, or acute or
- chronic mental disturbance; OR
- the modification of your home or motor vehicle if you or a dependant has a severe disability; OR
- palliative care for you or a dependant, or the death, funeral, or burial of a dependant; OR
- mortgage payments to prevent your bank or lender selling your home.

The ATO will assess your application and write to you with their decision. If the ATO approves the early release of your benefit, please send the following documents to Hejaz Islamic Super & Pension:

- ATO letter of approval of the early release of your benefit
- this application form (completed)
- proof of identity documents (see section 4)

*Documents not written in English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

Section 4: Identity verification

To make payments to you from your account we must verify your identity; you can supply us with an original certified copy of your photographic identification document via post, or you can submit with this form a scanned non-certified colour copy of your photographic identification.

If you supply us with a scanned copy of your identification we also need to electronically verify your identity. If you do not want us to identify you electronically please supply us with original certified copies of your identification via post. If you have any questions around this process please contact us on 1300 043 529.

When you opt for electronic verification, the details of the documents you provide to us will be submitted to the Australian government's Document Verification Service (DVS). The DVS is a national online system that allows organisations to compare an individual's identifying information with a government record. Information about their privacy policy is available from their website: <http://www.dvs.gov.au>.

If you would like to proceed with electronic verification please tick each of the consent boxes below:

You consent to us electronically verifying your identity; AND

You are authorised to provide the identification documents to us; AND

You understand that the details of the identification documents will be checked against the Australian government's document verification service.

Please note that we are unable to make any payment until your identity has been verified either by this method, or by receiving a certified original copy of your identification by post.

Section 5: Declaration

- I do solemnly and sincerely declare that the information provided by me in this Early Release Application Form is true and correct.
- I also declare that I am unable to meet my reasonable and immediate family living expenses and that I do not have any assets (apart from my home) which could (reasonably and realistically speaking) be used or sold to cover this gap.
- I also declare that the amount I am requesting to be released is necessary to meet this reasonable and immediate family expense.
- I make this solemn declaration by virtue of the Statutory Declaration Act 1959 as amended and subject to the penalties provided in that Act for the making of false statements in the statutory declarations, conscientiously believing the statements contained in the declaration to be true in every particular.
